

What if

What if there was a tree that was free it was not hurt it could not be touched and it could be the tree it wanted to be there was no trash no garbage it lived in peace but no matter what happen the tree could be the way it wanted to be but that can not happen unless we treat the trees the way they want to be

